What if I told you
Straight to your face
What if I told you
Nothing at all
Cover it with make-up
Hiding all the bruises
No one shall notice
No one shall know
Why can't you hear me no more
Hear when I whisper your name
Hear why I feel so ashamed
Hear when I silence my tears
What if I pointed
A gun to your head
What if I pulled the trigger
You do deserve it
All the hurt you can get
Besides no one shall notice
No one shall know
