Take it fast, take is slow
But it won't soften the blow
When it's time to go
May be old, may be scared
But you'll never be prepared
For that final blow

Better use your wits or you'll lose your mind
There's a world to discover and you're running out of time
Life's a roller coaster ride that took you by surprise
Now you're burnin' up inside

Better make it better
Better make it better
Better make it better
'Cause time is running out fast

You can scream, you can shout
But when your time runs out
Deep inside you'll know
May be rich, may be poor
But when you knock at Heaven's door
Well, you have to go

Make the most of what you've got
For it's better than to not have anything at all Take each day as it's your last
Or you'll find the future's passed and you're left with nothing at all

Better make it better
Better make it better
Better make it better
'Cause time is running out fast

Better make it better
Make it last
