I've spent too much time waiting for you in vain
I can't hear your voice although I call your name
I can't go on but I still hang on just the same

I've spent endless nights crying your name out loud
But I still remain alone in an empty crowd
As time goes on I realize you'll never change

I say a prayer I count the hours
I hear a voice but it's not yours I count the score
I can't go on playing the waiting game

If you should ever change your mind
I'll be there just call my name
Until then I'll be playing the waiting game

All you left me was emptiness
Now everyday seems the same
You've gone but I'm still playing the waiting game

I've waited too long wishing my life away
Convincing myself tomorrow you'd change your ways
I can't go on but I still hang on just the same

I say a prayer I count the hours
I hear a voice but it's not yours I count the score
I can't go on playing the waiting game

If you should ever change your mind
I'll be there just call my name
Until then I'll be playing the waiting game

All you left me was emptiness
Now everyday seems the same
You've gone but I'm still playing the waiting game

I've waited far too long for
You to change your ways
Playing the waiting game

If you should ever change your mind
I'll be there just call my name

Until then I'll be playing the waiting game

All you left me was emptiness
Now everyday seems the same
You've gone but I'm still playing the waiting game

If you should ever change your mind
I'll be there just call my name
Until then I'll be playing the waiting game

All you left me was emptiness
Now everyday seems the same
You've gone but I'm still playing the waiting game
