I find myself

I'm just awastin' my time away

No matter what I do

It always ends up the same

One minute moves

Into the next

My life was simple but now it's complex

And it doesn't seem to mean anything at all

And everything I wanna be

Is just another silly dream, you see

But I'll keep dreaming just the same

Sometimes it's hard to be me

When people stand in my way

I get so easily discouraged

Well, what can I say

They try to mess you up

They try to push you around

They'll do anything

To bring you down

I'm not gonna be

Stuck in mediocrity

When everybody's trying to bring me
Back down to reality
Oh, why can't they see
Just how much this means to me
Maybe one day I'll be special
I'll be special
It means nothing
It means everything
It means something to me
What you tryin' to say
I'm not gonna play
in this little game
That you have created for me
Then had your chance to do
What you needed to
And now it's time for me to step right up and Spin that wheel
This time's for real
It's not gonna work this time
Coz in the end it's going to be mine
There's no need for me to stay
Coz everything is gonna go my
My way
My way, my way
My way

My way, my way
