I never told you how to live your life

I never said you had to be something you don't want to be

I never said you had to stick around forever

Never said you had to stick around to be with me

[Chorus]:

I ain't going to be responsible

When your life don't end up full

All your talk has become bull

Just what do you see

Don't place the blame on me

A lack of vision when you made your decision

And you wonder why your life has turned out this way

You tried to use me and succeeded to confuse me

But now you're feeling sorry 'cause you got played

(Repeat Chorus)

Life is evil when you don't get what you want

Memories can serve as ghosts

They'll tease and haunt you

When you spend your nights up late

Wondering all about your fate

Why did life end up this way

For you
