hello everybody

guess what i just found another wanna be somebody gonna sell their body pound for pound their gonna be a big star if they can get the chance but it takes more than talent in this half -assed world if you wanna little song and dance chorus

do you like what you see to live this life of luxury

no cares no dignity

it's all about the money

it's the only way to be here's another person he's a little worse for wear tried to live that life so fast tried to live without a care well fame can be a fickle friend who makes you feel quite tall but when your amp pie starts to crumble it can push you for a fall

do you like what you see to live this life of luxury

it's the perfect way to be

this is what you wanted and everything you need then be quite prepared my friend for the life you choose to lead cuz fame has many faces for each of us to see but the wise man is the one who knows you should never believe
