Lets all sing out of key you know we do it everyday, lets all shine like the sun you know we do it everyday.
how about we fall like rain?
how about we wish for fame?
everyday. we're all drowning in oceans of drama.
can you taste the tide? it's coming.
it's coming to wash us to the shores.
that we have all seen way too many times before.
I'm a lover that lies and you're a liar that loves but aren't we all just lovers?
aren't we all just liars? the trader, the hero, the guilty and the innocent these are the characters we play in life
