You make me dizzy running circles in my head

One of these days I'll chase you down

We'll look who's going crazy now

We're face to face my friend,

Better get out

You know you make me break out

I don't want to look like that

You can see this on my face

It's all for you

The more and more I take

I break right through

Therapy still scares me

Putting me on my back again.

I may be crazy, little frayed around the ends

One of these days I'll phase you out

Burn it in the blast off watching me crawl away

Try to get out
