"My Poor Brain"

Real life is so hard

We hide in the stars

That's where our heads are

My head and your heart

CHORUS

This a black out

Don't let it go to waste

This is a black out

I want to detonate

When you are so far

I'm falling apart

Lose all my sonar

You jam my radar

CHORUS

Sometimes I feel like getting stuck

Between the handshake and the f*ck

You've got me on guard

I've got my headstart

My head and your heart

The same in the stars

CHORUS

Sometimes I wish that I could change

I can't save you from my poor brain
