its all in your mind

she said the darkness and the light the clock

it bleeds for you

but you never got the time in right i woke you up and i slit the throat of your confidence and we laughed in the night

and i felt all right

all hands on deck boys cause this ship was made to sink

your swabber salutes you now but i know what hes thinking

i woke you up and i slit the throat of your confidence

thanks a lot

the clothes she wears mis-fit and she's nervous when she speaks her zombie mom and dad live in a seperate house of freaks

i woke you up and i slit the throat of your confidence

thanks a lot...

im the one for you cause i know all the dirty things you like to do im the fear in your eyes im the fire in your flies im the sound thats buzzing aruond your head
