Everyone makes one mistake

One more time for old times sake

One more time before the feeling fades

One less born of memories

One more bruise you gave to me

One more test just how much can i take?

You're not the one but your the only one who could make me feel like this

You're not the one but your the only one who can make
me feel like SHIT

Something never meant to be

Everything you meant to me

Wake me when this punishment is done

Those who try and get away

From the one who gets away

Someone's always someone else's one

You're not the one but your the only one who could make me feel like this

You're not the one but your the only one who can make
me feel like SHIT

x2

Until the end of time

In another life

Till the day i die

Save it up for one more try

Save it for the last goodbye

We go ON and get OFF

and get ON

and get OFF

-Guitar solo-

You're not the one but your the only one who could

You're not the one but your the only one who can make
me feel like SHIT

x4
