Who called the police?
They're everywhere like bees
And you scratch your fleas
And throw 'em out to sea
Feel your heart beat
Where you're no longer free

AND it reminds me of you
The yellow bus to school
You should take some lessons
In leading first impressions
And I know a few,
But none like you.

There's too much time on your hands
Live your life making plans
The you get hit with your bills
And there's no refills
'Cause we get one chance
And this one's yours

Throwing little rocks at your window
But you ain't gettin' up
Someone's turned the light on
But it's not your room
I know a few,
But none like you.

There's too much time on your hands
Live your life making plans
The you get hit with your bills
And there's no refills
'Cause we get one chance
And this one's yours
