MadChild]

I give you the creeps

My style's sickening

First the awakening

Prepare for the quickening

Battle sole controller

There can only be one

Drink a can of Pepsi-cola

While I'm walking on the sun

I'm ill

Equipped with interchangeable weaponry

Three mystical blades

And multiple personalities

Come crisp with raspiness

Witchcraft to grasp this

Depth of perception

Schizophrenic perfectionist

My direction is out there past the stars

Part beast, with powerful jaws and sharp claws

Exceptional in this physical existence

Suck on my potential

And choke on this persistence
For instance I'm the light
That's shining in the distance
Palm trees pina colodas
Citrus and incense
I'm intense
Joker laugh get broke in half
Like Sylvester Stallone
Comfortable, stroke the shaft
No doubt I'm immaculate
I'm tackling those
Cackling crows attacking
And I'm packing in shows
Transform, but still come with fantastic form
Ancient war chants
Clips surpass the norm
Windstorm that is creating a god-awful mess
Now take a shot at the best
I got a lot off my chest
And this is hot off the press
And it sizzles and scorches
I scorch you down in deep dark caves lead by torches
[Prevail]
Yo, man how ya feeling?
Man for realla I could kill a gorilla

I'm a breed of the last to see men
In activation on a planet of freaks
I frequent hollows and abandoned hallways
And the poisons in my abdomen
So watch my movement always
I take the things out of my old armor
Remove the rings out of my old grenade parlor
I stay sharper than the tails from the partner
And twice as sharp as the reason
The hands of the hooded wanderer
Some will wonder how much longer
Before the berserkers conquer
I promise my attack on all those who sponsor
The material put out by monsters
In appearance of king Richard the third
My style comes precured
There's no further twisting necessary
There's many ways to enter Deferrin's embassy
And take your place on the last line of security
Renege from him's a blasphemy
Swine like red red wine and beads of rosary
