Fate plays a swan's song sweet staccato, deep sterling silver bullet, leather bomb or a prada No fabric can protect you from the magic I let loose, I'm Fantasia on acid let the phantom posses you I practice patterns of aquatic caverns deep sea pressure crush submarines to dust parascope up The widow maker windows painted black on the winnebagos Tunnel vision to our support want a report from the front line Airborne regiment static line, base jump, based on cones and cylinders Poles that I've thrown confuse the riddler Bones break and skin bruises, everybody's similar Human beings intriguing never shoot the messenger No constraints, restraints for the safety of the passenger Roller coaster closer to coma than you're supposed to be Amusement park of abusive arts seek the recipe

((Mad Child) Chorus))

Who can't feel me inside You can't tell me real men don't cry Let's not pretend in the end we don't do, I hope when I go they send me up high And we won't give up the fight, I'll follow the light and stay up all night In the end we all die I hope when I go they send me up high

(Mad Child)

I like to live life without my girl Life's fucked so I hide from the outside world I'm stuck in this place and I just can't help it Plan my escape but I still seek shelter
You must have felt that I'm self abusive Lie to myself when I make new excuses When I'm by myself I can change what the truth is So I stay inside that's why I'm reclusive Box of movies, Boxes of popcorn, Big bag of weed, nice girls in my hot tub I'm deep into this hibernation look into the mirror like please be patient Write with a vest on its kind of intense, danger's probably walking on the other side of my fence Something pointed at the door I'm going out of my head, one way to look at life is we already dead

One of our brothers got killed that's the first thing gone Hopefully the last if we all stay strong Young veteran, bonded by friendship honor and vengeance
We arm for protection

(Chorus)
