Born in fire, built in this empire
Can't get no higher or stop my desire
Dark Riders, we be pullin' all nighters
Never see us perspire building this empire

Born in fire, built in this empire
Can't get no higher or stop my desire
Dark Riders, we be pullin' all nighters
Never see us perspire building this empire

Order the launch, blow the fuck out the insubordinate Blow the court at the plan, can't change the coordinates
On course threatened by force, passed the limit
Mutilate the meak, terrorize the timid

Murder in a minute then it's mission accomplished
Corner the confused then stomp with my accomplice
Figurisly we, disfigure at random
And still remain the most vain in this chain of commandments

Branded it's the beast this is mad child unleashed
God bless the masterpiece, one sinner within the peace
Release the hound, sound with a demented twist
Bent but the incentive is inventiveness

Pay dues, man come on I spent the went on this
Made the whirlwind of the experimentalists
No time for gentleness, Ive got moves to make
Have fun, ridin' the same bus that I used to take

Chemical weapons specialist is here to diffuse
That shit you call the bomb
Because that's yesterdays news
Word up

Born in fire, built in this empire
Can't get no higher or stop my desire
Dark Riders, we be pullin' all nighters
Never see us perspire building this empire

Born in fire, built in this empire
Can't get no higher or stop my desire
Dark Riders, we be pullin' all nighters
Never see us perspire building this empire

The superficial, metamorphin' their bodies to pixel
Tryna lose m, 'cuz they know I go for gristle
This will eventually run its natural course
And the weasels who ram-skin in the house of the lords

Us, the cannon ball crushin' misguided angel
Bent on performance in the symbol of our label
It's simple, the cradle to the grave and so fourth You've heard other speeches by those breaching the default

Sea salt, eye of newt, horn of bison
I've sworn allegiance to the league of striking lightning
We fall when we choose, and confuse you with patterns
The legend of the two who induced you like dragons

We strike like swooping Gargoyles of Saint Catherine
I'm taking parts of hard earned parts unimagined
It happens, when lacking a variety of guidance
The good ones die young and dive in to the silence

Born in fire, built in this empire
Can't get no higher or stop my desire
Dark Riders, we be pullin' all nighters
Never see us perspire building this empire

Born in fire, built in this empire
Can't get no higher or stop my desire
Dark Riders, we be pullin' all nighters
Never see us perspire building this empire

The torment of getting caught up in the moment
And having to be on the receiving end of my orbit
This axis, acts as light and dark passage
And guides me passed the sticks, river floating caskets

Promoting collapsing lungs and charcoal tablets
The howling wolf pack who dwells in outgoing madness
Cage driven, rage livin' in vains of access
Engage the driven and incisions are the process

Check the flip side of the coin, Dark Riders preform Words rip right through ya skull tucked inside the storm
It's hard to hide if your warm, blooded, we sense heat
Predators that feed off flesh to make ends meat

Here's a guarantee, death is instantaneous
Mercilessly, me maim the miscellaneous
Conquer all my challenges by reaching within
Then mad child leaves with the screech of the wind

Born in fire, built in this empire
Can't get no higher or stop my desire
Dark Riders, we be pullin' all nighters
Never see us perspire building this empire

Born in fire, built in this empire
Can't get no higher or stop my desire
Dark Riders, we be pullin' all nighters
Never see us perspire building this empire
