CHORUS

(It might seem) It seems like I'm in love
(Big mistake) But that's a big mistake
(I'll just hang) Just hanging for a while (Like your smile) Guess I like your smile
(Here again) December's here again
(Should I go?) I'll leave just tell me when (Feel no pain) I won't feel no pain
But let me love you once again
[Moka Only]
Now how we jumped into this thing with no preconceived ideas
I always thought that me and she could be free
And I see, it's not as easy as I once believed
The more I look at the alternative the harder to leave

(No more) No more looking in your eyes
(Before) No more staring at the sky
(It was cool) I only asked if I could stay
(No rules) From December until May

No more counting down the days
No more drifting into space
We're just living for today
(Ain't it cool to feel this way)

CHORUS

[Mad Child]
When we connected, we made an agreement
No strings attached we were keeping it even
It was like take it or leave it let's be casual
Until we got lost in time it was magical
But I'm not ready for this settling down talk again
A cat needs his space, you're tryin to box me in
I need oxygen, let me get back in and do my thing
This was only supposed to be from winter to spring
I think it's time for us to end this What you call falling in love, I call it more than friendship
Got mixed feelings, but I'll be alright
I'm out the door but let me stay just one more night

CHORUS

(It might seem) It seems like I'm in love
(On the surface) But that's a big mistake
(What's the purpose) Hanging for a while
Guess I like your smile
(Here again) December's here again
(Is it too long?) I'll leave just tell me when (Should I move on) I won't feel no pain
But let me love you once again
Let me love you once again
Let me love you once again
It seems like I'm in love
So let me love you once again
