All Alone On A Saturday Night
'Cause my baby won't treat me right
I put all my apples in one little basket
And now I can't get me a bite
I'm all alone on a Saturday night

There's numbers on the wall
But I don't know who to call
'Cause my baby left me and I feel so bad
But you know that I just can't crawl
I'm all alone on a Saturday night
I'm all alone on a Saturday night

I'm all alone (now baby you're all alone)
All alone (now baby you're all alone)
All alone (now baby you're all alone)
All alone (now baby you're all alone)
I'm all alone on a Saturday night
I'm all alone on a Saturday night

All Alone On A Saturday Night
'Cause my baby won't treat me right
I put all my apples in one little basket
And now I can't get me a bite
I'm all alone on a Saturday night
I'm all alone on a Saturday night

Well, I light a cigarette turn on the TV
Go out in the kitchen get somethin' to eat
But I'm eatin' my heart out cryin' misery
Don't nobody in this world ever wanna love me

I'm all alone (now baby you're all alone)
All alone (now baby you're all alone)
All alone (now baby you're all alone)
All alone (now baby you're all alone)
I'm all alone on a Saturday night
I'm all alone on a Saturday night
