I'd like to set the record straight
I ain't got the time to waste
So don't even try to reform me
From the beginning I was never a child
Had to fight my way, I was hardly alive
Day after day I couldn't turn away
Don't ever try to change what you don't understand
Live your life on the sharp edge
I can see the light of day and glory may cross my way
It's a hard life to live and to love
But I guess you know that from the first day
I was bound to win, I ain't a loser
I'm willing to sin, nothing can stop me
Aiming for the top of the world
Don't ever try to change what you don't understand
Live your life on the sharp edge
I don't believe in written laws
Why should we try to equal god?
There's a beast within each and everyone
So when you come across the likes of me
You better stay out of trouble,
I ain't got what you need
Leave me alone
Never say never again
