Where is the love...(oh where...)
that you promised me? (you promised me)
Were all the days and the nights that we spent just a fantasy?
(just a fantasy?)

Where is the love...(where is the love...)
that you said we would share?..(that you said we would share)
Why did I wake up this morning to find that you were not there? (oh,oh,oh)

You picked a fine time to tell me that you did not love me....
(you did not love me baby)
After all this time I thought that you were only thinking of me
Sometimes I feel like I could sit right down and just cry (cry)
But all that I can do tonight is wonder as I ask myself
why

Where is the love???
(Where is the love? Whe-ee-e--eeere)
