the wood nymph blonde by Elisa Waut
all fool's day
isn't my day
any day of the week

if the wind blows
and my hair grows
in the sunshine
any day of the week

all fool's day
is a sad day
and there's no way
I can hide for a week

if the wind grows
and my hair blows
in the sunshine
any night of the week

if the blondes of the world coldn't have a fling
like a wood-nymph blonde if the blondes of the world couldn't have a fling
like a wood-nymph blonde

I'm not afraid to get wet in the rain
wood-nymph blonde
wood-nymph blonde
