We took care of all the memories left them where they use to be Iâ€™m alright When thereâ€™s nothing left but sanity curled up right in front of me Iâ€™ll do fine
We break it down to modern physics to calculate statistics still weâ€™re not right
When thereâ€™s nothing left to say to me leave it to the memories Iâ€™ll do fine.

Well itâ€™s alright, patiently waiting but somehow, you hesitate, are you ok?

Itâ€™s in all your awkward faces and random conversations
You think no one ever sees it but thereâ€™s always the temptation
The sight of your fading eyes die, I canâ€™t believe it, canâ€™t believe it

We break it down to modern physics to calculate
statistics still weâ€™re not right
When thereâ€™s nothing left to say to me leave it to the memories Iâ€™ll do fine.

Well itâ€™s alright patiently waiting but somehow you
hesitate
Are you ok?

Awkward glances, doomed romances, hearts are breaking, pulses racing

Itâ€™s all right, you got what you needed, and Iâ€™m fine, you better believe it [x2]

Well itâ€™s alright patiently waiting but somehow you
hesitate
Are you ok? [x2]
