Don't tell me it's over
How you gonna tell me that it's over?
Didn't see you yesterday
Don't you think you're acting kind of certain?
, look me in my face
You must think that I'm crazy to let you just walk away
Oh really believed that I deserve an explanation

What am I missing, what happened to you and me How did I get pushed up to the sides? (When did we decide that?)
I'm walking towards something that never understand
I'm not ready to pack up and just leave , that place

I cannot be a loser in love is
I follow ...take my cards right the ones we had
Now I'm left here questioning why you say you're done
You dreamed I was the one, now I feel down

Cause I'm not done, I'm not done
I'm not done, I'm not done

I gave you everything you didn't wanna leave Until you turn your back on me just like that You could never see I was a knock up woman
But everything it is I still haven't heard Boy you really know you got some nerve to say it's over, cause this kind of things I don't deserve

What am I missing, what happened to you and me
How did I get pushed up to the sides? (When did we decide that?)
I'm walking towards something that never understand
I'm not ready to pack up and just leave , that place

I cannot be a loser in love is
I follow ...take my cards right the ones we had Now I'm left here to question why you say you're done
You dreamed I was the one, now I feel done

Cause I'm not done, I'm not done
I'm not done, I'm not done

Yeah I think you got some explaining to do I thought our love gonna stand all that we've been through
But I know that lately things aren't the same
But I never lost hope and I'm not giving up on you

I cannot be a loser in love is
I follow ...take my cards right the ones we had
Now I'm left here questioning why you say you're done
You dreamed I was the one, now I feel down
How could I be losing? Heeey yeah
Uh you're so locked up, said I was the one Uh, now I feel done, now I feel done.
