No I haven't seen the sky tonight
Too many clouds, there's no star light
But I know it's true
There must be a blue moon

I got the message
You left early today
No signs, no warnings to give you away
Not even good-bye
It was the only way

Chorus:
And there's a blue moon out tonight
No I don't see it
But I feel it's light comess pourin' through the clouds
You left above my head
And there's a blue moon out tonight
No miss conception
But I know it's right
Cause I've never been so blue
In all of my life

No don't call a friend
Cause nobody should know
It's just between me, my heart and my soul
And the memories
Perfectly placed in my mind

The more I think it over
The more I know it's true
The reason you left me
Why I'm feeling so blue
There must be a blue moon

Chorus:
And there's a blue moon out tonight
No I don't see it
But I feel it's light comes pourin' through the clouds
And there's a blue moon out tonight
No miss conception

But I know it's right
Cause I've never been so blue
In all of my life

And there's a blue moon out tonight
No I don't see it
But I feel it's light comes pourin' through the clouds
And there's a blue moon out tonight
No miss conception
Yes I know it's right
Cause I've never been so blue

No I haven't seen the sky tonight
But I know it's true
There must be a blue...moon
Yeah
