I am on your side and I'm trying not to hide, it's so hard, so hard.
I sing what I can't say and I hope it makes its way to you,
I might be spiralling.

So whatcha think about this,
Now we've talked it to the ground? Whatcha think of me now, you've seen me up you've seen me down?
I've gotta real good feeling about you,
I don't tell you, I just don't tell you.

Tell me what do you want from me?
I just wanna be there for you babe,
You can ask of me anything,
I'd give it in a heartbeat.
I've gotta real good, feeling about you, I don't tell you, I just don't tell you.

And, you say that this is new for you,
It's just as scary for me too,
But I will open up and try let go,
Where you're taking me, I don't know.

I am on your side and I'm trying not to hide, well it's so hard, it's so hard.
I sing what I can't say and I hope it makes its way to you,
I might be spiralling, oh yeah.

So, I'm on the train now,
And I will be with you real soon,
I told you I'd been let down,
But for you I'll make the room,
My body will not let me block it out,
Don't you see you knock me out!
Spiralling down and grinning from ear to ear,
I wasn't even looking for you,
Somehow you found me here and now the tears dry,
And leave me be,
And I'm breathing differently.

And, you say that this is new for you,
It's just as scary for me too,
But I will open up and try let go,
Where you're taking me, I don't know.

I am on your side and I'm trying not to hide, well it's so hard, it's so hard.
I sing what I can't say and I hope it makes its way to
you,
I might be spiralling, oh yeah.

I'm falling asleep, it's so hard to speak, even harder to think,
But I gotta get it out,
I don't understand how you are a part of me now,
You were the easiest decision I ever had to make.
Oh, and you know I miss you,
And I think of you every second you're not here, oh.
Want to be with you, I want all of you, all of you.

Well you know I miss you,
And I think of you every second you're not here, oh.
Want to be with you, I want all of you, all of you.

I am on your side and I'm trying not to hide, well it's so
hard, it's so hard.
I sing what I can't say and I hope it makes its way to
you,
I might be spiralling, oh.

So whatcha think about this,
Now we've talked it to the ground? Whatcha think of me now.
What do you think of me now?
Oh yeah, now that I'm spiralling down.
