And If you've ever been in love I wanna hear you sing it as loud as you can, Sing

Suddenly I'm not afraid to try and love someone Suddenly I feel like my heart can open up
And suddenly I'm thinkin maybe you could be the one
Finally I think it might be right to fall in love
So fly on, fly high
Come on Cupid hit a bulls-eye
Think I finally found that guy
So fly on, fly high
Come on Cupid hit a bulls-eye
Please don't let me down this time
Cupid, I think I'm ready, ready to fall in love

I've been up and so many times in love
And thought it all still I think I've never really known true love
But this time it could very well be a possibility
Finally, hopefully you won't let me down this time
Oh No

Chorus

He could be the man of my eternity
But I don't know
If the future has him here with me
But I do know that the way he makes me feel is so lovely
Mentally, Spiritually, he completes me
Cupid please come closer to me

Chorus

Common's Rap

Chorus w/ Ad-libs
