listen,baby

I dont see no rings on these fingers so im not gonna deal with your drama long as youre with me , you got to show respect get out and get a job and bring home a check

see i will love you till the day i die but never love you enough that imma live a lie
so three snaps up, three snaps down wanna be treated like a king you better wear the crown wanna play the boss (guess what)

you got to pay the cost (sho nuff) you wanna wear the pants (guess what) you got to be a man (sho nuff) hangin out with your friends (guess what) then watch what time you come in (sho nuff) dont want to pay the bills (guess what)

i know somebody who will (sho nuff)

now we been shackin up (word) since 93 (word) i aint gettin no younger (word), i need some guarentees (word)
the best years of my life (word) is what ive given you (word)
argue, fuss and fight (word), seems thats all you do and us goin to church always in your plans but come sunday morning you play sick in bed

see,i will love you till the day i die
but never love you enough to live a lie
so three snaps up, three snaps down if you wanna be treated like a king you got to wear the crown

wanna play the boss (guess what)
you got to pay the cost (sho nuff)

you want to wear the pants (guess what) you gotta be a man (sho nuff)

hangin out with your friends (guess what)
watch what time you come in (sho nuff)
dont want to pay the bills (guess what)

i know somebody who will (sho nuff)

(think weve got some issuse at hand) we need to address 'em baby, yeah (i need you to understand) that ive got needs too (over and over again)
yeah, i put up with your childish games (i just cant be raisin' no man) yeah, wanna be treated like a king you better wear the crown

want to play the boss (guess what) you gotta pay the cost (sho nuff) you wanna wear the pants, yeah (guess what)
you gotta be a man (sho nuff)

hangin out with your friends (guess what)
watch what time you come in (sho nuff)
dont wanna pay the bills (guess what)
i know somebody who will (sho nuff)

you hurt me for the last time (guess what) its time to tell you whats on my mind (sho nuff) always rippin runnin these streets (guess what) well, i found some one thats gonna take care of me (sho nuff)

nothin but lies commin out your mouth (guess what) might as well go on back to your mothers house (sho nuff)
cause you been messin around, yeah (guess what)
and now its time to put you down (sho nuff)
