you doin all that you can to take a stand and be a man (and take care of your shortys) all your love your heart your time your mind your money every dime
(do you picture how you want it?) but she dont care (cuz she knows that your there) every month on time (but she wont let you see the babies) cuz she knows it aint yours in the back of her mind (now she got your ass on tv)

Oh now your an episode
feelings out of control
on some maury povich shit looking all crazy when clearly you could have prevented it pay attention to the chicks you hit and oh your just an episode now everybody knows you want some maury povich shit how do think it cuz when mainly you got the attachment?
bet you wear a condom with the next chick.

all you ladies making babies just to keep a man around (there is one thing you should wanna know) sit and think about the drama you would bring to the child
(and how you using him for doe)
and you goin' say (hes the babies daddy)
when you been all over town (dont you know you read this part too slow) open legs and empty heads dont do much to keep you down (you goin' get more than you wanted though)

Oh now your an episode
looking all crazy when clearly you could have prevented it

pay attention to the chicks you hit
and oh your just an episode now everybody knows you want some maury povich shit how do you think it czu when mainly you got the
