We will pray if you ask us to pray
We'll sing just about anything
We'll bring you fine meals in the twilight of day
And love you like a mother when you've lost your way

And there's nothing we ask cause we can see
That you're a child of God, a child like me

There are times when there's no one you find
There are nights when you're wild with fright
And loneliness feels like your only true friend
But in the morning when you wake up, we're here once again

And there's nothing we ask cause we can see
That you're a child of God, a child like me

And it goes, and it goes, and it goes on What's mine is then yours and it floats on
And maybe all that we give
Are moments of love, moments we share
You and I

Cause we'll pray if you ask us to pray
We'll sing just about anything
We'll bring you fine meals in the twilight of day
And love you like a mother when you've lost your way

And there's nothing we ask cause we can see
That you're a child of God, a child like me
