CHORUS:

In the city of angels
it's where I lost my heart
In the city of angels
it was you right from the start

In the city of angels...
city of angels yeah
In the city of angels...
city of angels yeah

Verse 1:

Sunset Boulevard the Beverly Hills Hotel,
It's the smell of your sand of my skin,
Silent remind you of my everything.

CHORUS

Verse 2:

I'm no longer walking on the Boulevard of broken dreams,
I follow the love i can't get enough,
since you open up to me,
are you just another star on my walk of fame,
the city has no sence of shame.
