I know you told me not to ask where you have been
I know you told me not to try
To understand the way you live your life at night
But don't you see you make me cry

So now I've left I know it broke your heart
But I prefer to be alone
I hope you feel the pain I've always felt with you
I know I'll make it on my own

Chorus:
I touch your skin
I smell the sin
your eyes are lying
I touch your skin
I smell the sin
my love for you is dying(2 times)

I know you told me not to ask where you have been
I know you told me not to try
Do understand the way you live your life at night
But don't you see you make me cry
Chorus (2 times)
