Living only in the twilight
Feeling sad and feeling small
Urging for an unseen love
Than you came and changed it all

Turning darkness into sunshine
Turning nighttime into day
You released my locked emotions
You kissed my tears away

You and I, you and I
We can trust each other
You and I, you and I
There'll never be another
I love you even more
Than I did before
You and I'll be allright
I love you even more
Than I did before
You and I, you and I

Get adrift in your blue eyes
Sweet surrender in your arms
Let the feeling grow
Let our lovewell overflow

Turning aching into laughter
Turning grief into delight
You seduced me with your lucher
You led me to the light

You and I, you and I
We can trust each other
You and I, you and I
There'll never be another
I love you even more
Than I did before
You and I'll be allright
I love you even more
Than I did before
You and I, you and I

I love you even more
Than I did before
You and I'll be allright
I love you even more
Than I did before
You and I, you and I

You and I, you and I
We can trust eachother
You and I, you and I
There'll never be another
I love you even more
Than I did before
You and I'll be allright
I love you even more
Than I did before
You and I, you and I
