Fool in an apple tree, far from reality
Writing a symphony for you, but I know
Somewhere in central park, choirs of dogs™ ll bark
Harmony in the dark, for you

Stilettos in the street™ ll tap a rhythm for two
And coppers on the beat™ ll drum debut avenue
The wind that™ s whirling down the block
Is humming rhapsody in blue for you, just you

Fool in a paradise, takes off a bad disguise
No need to analyze for you, but I know Down by the theatre lights, lovers who™ ve lost the right
Sing away lonely nights for you

Stilettos in the street™ ll tap a rhythm for two
And coppers on the beat™ ll drum debut avenue
The wind that™ s whirling down the block
Is humming rhapsody in blue for you, just you

Thunder, lightning in the skies that makes him wonder,
Who could hypnotize him under too, for you, but I know

Fool in a dream machine, wondering where he™ s been
He only dreams a dream for you, but I know
Pigeons that fly around, are dancing to the sound
Of an orchestra underground for you

Stilettos in the street™ ll tap a rhythm for two
And coppers on the beat™ ll drum debut avenue
The wind that™ s whirling down the block
Is humming rhapsody in blue for you, just you, just you, for you
