Mind focused on the far away, sticking to the plan
Faith healer in this cartoon play, that's the witchy man
Speaks softly in the light of day, moves by dark of night
Thrill-seeker in the market-place, slipping out of sight

This is the way that we're feeling, this is the day that we can
And if you think it's hard to be the witchy woman
Try to be the witchy man

Builds your castle in the air, rides into the sun
Try to call him if you dare, doesn't wear a gun
He's the one out on a limb, muscles on his tears
He's the tide against the swim, pressure on the peers

This is the way that we're feeling, this is the day that we can
And if you think it's hard to be the witchy woman
Try to be the witchy man

This is the way that we're feeling, this is the day that we can
And if you think it's hard to be the witchy woman
Try to be the witchy man

This is the way that we're feeling, this is the day that we can
And if you think it's hard to be the witchy woman
Try to be the witchy man
