Here is your letter to tell you all the things I never could before
I was always the best at lying and you know it (you know it)
And I hope he makes you laugh like I could never do
And I hope that he is everything that I never was.

(â€¦but)
Your lips on his speak more than you could
And I hope he makes you smile like I do, I do Stay silent sweetie, you know it's the only thing your good at ill forgetâ€¦ill forget you before I'm gone

I'm so tired of all your excuses of "how this had to end"
we all know (yeah, we all know)

Remember my name, remember my face
Remember my voice, ill never be back again

I'm not leaving this (this a secret)
I'm not leaving this (this a secret)
