"Without You"

Visit "Without You" on MotoLyrics.com

I feel like my world is crashing down without you.
I know that I never could go on without you.
Where did your wings take you this time? So far away from me.
You Runaway to escape but Ive been dying to tell you that
When you come home, Ill be waiting for you with open arms.
Id do anything to wake up in your arms.
I dont seem to understand why every time that you are near
I keep feeling like Im farther from you.
Ill take your wings so that youll come back down to me
