As I look from this stage at the hundreds of kids in this room with me

The truth is so plain and so obvious, I just can't help to see...

That all of us we are one and the same

Only different in our ages and our names...

How many times have you heard that you're a bore, or you're no good?

I know that all of us have been there, that's why we're all here joined as one...

We don't need that shit!

This ain't no punk rock clique!

We're as one at the show,

and one after the show!

We don't need that shit!

This ain't no punk rock clique!

Acceptance at the show!

And then after the show!

Society says that we're crazy

With utopian unreal goals

But we're fighting for something we truly believe

And all I can say is I'm glad we do...we do...

And they can say what they want...because our hearts...ARE TRUE!!!

What we've had through these years has been so
unforgettable

And what we've had through these years has been so unbelievable

What we've had through these years has been so
unforgettable

And what we've had through these years has been so
unbelievable

We don't need that shit!

This ain't no punk rock clique!

We're as one at the show,
and one after the show!

We don't need that shit!

This ain't no punk rock clique!

We're equal at the show,

And then after the show!

It's what we want to do
