I never thought I'd stand here with you
I never thought you would think of me
You smile on me and I feel like I'm home
Please smile again
Please smile forever

All my life I've been looking for you
And all this time
I've waited for someone like you
All the stars, oh they're watching us now
Oh oh
You're with me finally
Finally, finally..

I searched the world Now I find again
I never thought what I was looking for
But I was blind
cause you're right in front of me
You're there as you'll always be there

All my life I've been looking for you
And all this time
I've waited for someone like you
All the stars, oh they're watching us now
Oh oh
You're with me finally
Finally, finally..

All my life I've been looking for you
And all this time
I've waited for someone like you
All the stars, oh they're watching us now
You're with me finally

All my life I've been looking for you
And all this time
I've waited for someone like you
All the stars, oh they're watching us now
You're with me finally, because
All my life I've been looking for you
And all this time

I've waited for someone like you
All the stars, oh they're watching us now
You're with me finally
Finally
