"Here's My Hand"

We all want to get our way sometimes.
We're all born then choose to give up our lives.
You hooked me when You promised the Way,
So from now until forever I sayâ€¦!

Here's my hand, here's my hand.
You told me I was good enough to stand.
Here's my hand.

We all know the limits in our design,
So live off the truth and make up your mind.
It's silly just to get in the way.
So put 'em up and say it todayâ€¦!

And what you give, you take it along.
And what you hold, you find that its gone.
