Welcome here, the squirrel-wheel begins fasten the left hand belts

Remember not to think too much and your trip will be numbingly pleasant

Non-caring is the easiest way but to secure a passage to the 2nd plane you have to complete level one

Their dead-smile lips turn on their TV while urban gravestones scrape the skies

Rising over marionette cities and marionette skies

This is episode 666

destination chaos

Each and all an actor blind
