Time. Life. Love. Hold on.
Timeline too far gone.

Too lost to find my words, your answers
we've come so far without an anchor
Evolving from the start
Trying not to falter
We're leaving who we are
To find our ever after

Rise up to a place
Above all
Above all
High enough to see a way
Something to believe
Above all
Above all
Time for us to float away

The love we chased along a spiral staircase
Will lead us to the choice we're meant to face
A shadow in the sun
Escaping from the echoes
A thousand ways to run
But nothing holds us back now

Rise up to a place

Above all
Above all
High enough to see a way
Something to believe
Above all
Above all
Time for us to float away

Time. Life. Love. Hold on.
Timeline. Too far gone.

Rise up to a place
High enough to see
Time for us to float away

Float away

Rise up to a place

Above all

Above all

High enough to see a way

Something to believe

Above all

Above all

Time for us to float away
