Jump in Before you ever see the lights above where you've been Jump in below
You only take a chance when it's close enough to lead
you far
Far away from here

Let me comfort you with this longing to protect yourself
Come here
You can use the fear that you're carrying That's how you know you're alive

I've been holding you
To encourage you
You are safe enough
Let go
You can lose the fear
And be ready now
That's how you know you can fly

Jump in
Before you ever see the lights above where you've
been Jump in below
You only take a chance when it's close enough to lead
you far
Far away from here

There's a part of you no one ever knows
But you're not a lone You're free
You can feel the edge of a miracle
That's when you know you can fly

Jump in
Before you ever see the lights above where you've
been Jump in below
You only take a chance when it's close enough to lead
you far

Far away from here

Where do you believe you have to go from here?

And when you finally get there will you know?

It's up to you what you allow

The time is here

The time is now

Jump in

been

Jump in below

You only take a chance when it's close enough to lead

you far

Far away from here
