The touch of your hand runs through me
And the surge that I feel, pulls me in...
It's a place I've never been to
Immersed in the sound, I listen
To the voice of the silent words you say
Spoken with no condition

Love, Love, Love
It's an underlying feeling
Love, Love, Love
It's an underlying feeling (of oneness)

The warmth of the sun surrounds me
Like I'm floating inside a lucid dream
As we fall a little deeper
Your world spins around my senses
Like a burst of crimson from your eyes
It's an underlying feeling...

Love, Love, Love
It's an underlying feeling
Love, Love, Love
It's an underlying feeling (of oneness)
