You say were moving on,
Your love has come and gone.
You can't stop the changing season that's tearing my heart away,
Cause I remember when time was only sand, we were running forward, now were walking the streets of yesterday.

It's okay to let it go, it's alright to let it show.
Maybe were all healing, kneeling, to an alter of hope,
when our hands are touching, clutching to that open
door,
if we could touch the sun, with love to lead us on,
would that be enough for you to see we belong.

Leaning to the wind, go where no one else has been,
I will hold the silence till it sleeps in the palm of my hand.
I know you realize all that's burned your eyes was nothing more than(____) and (____) playing with your head

it's okay to let it go, it's alright to let it show.
Maybe were all healing, kneeling, to an alter of hope,
when our hands are touching, clutching to that open
door
If we could touch the sun, with love to lead us on, would that be enough for you to see we belong.

It's okay to let it go, its alright to let it show.
love will lead us on
love will lead us on

maybe we are only healing, kneeling to an alter of hope.
When our hands are touching, clutching to that open
door.
If we could touch the sun if love could lead us on..

maybe I will be enough for you to see... we belong.
