"Its Not Just Me"

tell me you've had trouble sleeping that you toss and turn from side to side that its my face you've been seeing in your dreams at night tell me that you wake up crying and you're not sure exactly why tell me that something is missing in your life in your life baby tell me that you live for love that forever is never enough that you've waited all your life to see that you want so badly to believe tell me that its not just me Could've swore I saw you smile at me standing in the pooring rain at a lost for words and running out of time I said this crazy thing crazy thing I said

Hold me now and tell me that you do believe in a soul, a soul mate and tell me, tell me, tell me repeat chorus
