I guess it's causin' a fit

Your heart and mine

The way that we connect

Keeps blowin' my mind

There you go again

It never ends, what you do to me

That I have seen the light of day

Love is finally goin' my way

Is it too good to be true, too good to be true

Give me one more kiss, one more touch

Baby I just can't get enough of you

And this time too good is true

All of a sudden I'm not, who I used to be

I had my heart locked but you have the key

And you find a way everyday to show me even more

That I have seen the light of day

Love is finally goin' my way

Is it too good to be true, too good to be true

Give me one more kiss, one more touch

Baby I just can't get enough of you

And this time too good is true, Oooo

Some people say we're too good to be true

But the don't get to be love by you

That I have seen the light of day

Love is finally goin' my way

Is it too good to be true, too good to be true

Yeah Give me one more kiss, one more touch

Baby I just can't get enough of you

And this time too good is true, too good, too good is true

Whoaa and this time too good is true, Yes it is
