If I ever write

The story of my life

Don't be surprised if you're where it begins

Girl, I'd have to dedicate

Every line on every page

To the memories we made

While you loved me...

I was born the day you kissed me

And I died inside the night you left me

But I lived

Oh I how I lived while you loved me

I'd start with chapter one

Love, innocent and young as the mornin' sun, on a new day

Even though I know the end

I'd do it all again

Cuz I got a lifetime in

While you loved me

I was born the day you kissed me

And I died inside the night you left me

But I lived, oh i live while you loved me
