(Francesco De Benedittis/Davide Esposito/Paul Manners)

I'm your dancing queen, come on boogie boogie with me
You said you'd rather stay home.
Well I have no doubt and I'm stepping out on my own.
You'd better leave me alone 'cos I'm just another habti you've grown.
Put on my cutest dress and I may be back before
tomorrow.
I just don't care no more. Keep your eyes on my back !
You can see me walking out of that door.

Give me a reason, I need a reason to save all my loving
for you
Give me a reason, one little reason to hold on
Keep me from being untrue.
You boy, you saw me crying. Don't mean I'm dying
I've been hurt. That's how I know it won't last...
This girl never stops flying... No time for sighing.
Here I am ! I'm out for loving tonight.

I'm getting down on the floor 'cos the feelings right
Wanna be in sight, that's for sure !
My body's asking for more in a way you've never seen it before.
Got on my cutest dress and I may be back before
tomorrow.
You missed the only train and the night is so young
And I'll never be the same again

Give me a reason, I need a reason to save all my loving
for you
Give me a reason, one little reason to hold on
Keep me from being untrue.
You boy, you saw me crying. Don't mean I'm dying
I've been hurt. That's how I know it won't last...
This girl never stops flying... No time for sighing.
Here I am! I'm out for loving tonight.

I'm your dancing queen, come on boogie boogie with me
Now that I am free, you can boogie boogie with me.
I'm your dancing queen, come on boogie boogie with me
Now that I am free, you can boogie boogie with me.

Give me a reason, I need a reason to save all my loving
for you
Give me a reason, one little reason to hold on
Keep me from being untrue.
You boy, you saw me crying. Don't mean I'm dying
I've been hurt. That's how I know it won't last..
This girl never stops flying, No time for sighing.
Here I am! I'm out for loving tonight.

Give me a reason, I need a reason to save all my loving
for you.
Give me a reason, one little reason to hold on
And keep me being untrue.
You boy, you saw me crying. Don't mean I'm dying,
I've been hurt. That's how I know it won't last..
This girl never stops flying, no time for sighing.
Here I am ! I'm out for loving tonight.
