Needless to say, another day has passed away
Yet everything, and nothing, has changed
Awake I lie, my thoughts get lost up in the sky
Needless to say, nothing will change
Maybe a mystic with fortunes to tell

Maybe the stars will align in the night
Surrender my coin at the old wishing well
To show me the path that is right

Would've been's and could've been's
They waste my days away
The colors of my life dissolve and fade to gray

So many paths of promise
If only I had seen the signs, so blind
Indecision poisons my mind
Ohh, so blind

Yet I must journey on
Oh oh
On and on

I see an old man in the mirror
A haunting vision torments me
It smothers and steals my dreams
Cold and bitter starring back at me
At the crossing of life I stand
Here I am
Looking down the road
On my own
Hear my cry
Answer me
Still I'm searching
Yet the truth is unknown
Though the night is cold
I walk the road alone

Here I am
At the crossing of life I stand
On my own
Looking down the road

Hear my cry
Still I'm searching
Answer me
Yet the truth is unknown
I walk the road alone
Though the night is cold
Yes I walk

I walk the road alone
