

Symphony X "Domination"

All along the waste and wild legions of lost scream in pain A million shattered destinies all slowly drowning in tears of flame

Break the chains around your necks lick your wounds you Dogs of War Raise your banners ever high and ravage the Babylon Whore

I, with darkest insurrection, victimize
Hail the horrors, all hail and sanctify
...my Domination

Rotting from the inside out ripping away to the core A million lies unite as one slaughtering innocence for evermore

Sound the mighty drums of doom march to this black heart of fate Clawing, tearing, slashing deep defiantly fighting our fate

I, with darkest insurrection, victimize
Hail the horrors, all hail and sanctify
...my Domination

Turn the waters red with rage burn all the earth shore to shore Open wide the Gates of Hell defile the Babylon Whore

I, with darkest insurrection, victimize
Hail the horrors, all hail and sanctify
...my Domination
...my Domination
