Music: Romeo-Pinnella-Miller

Lyrics: Miller

Can you look into my eyes

Tell me, now do you somehow

Still recognize this stare I wear

Through crystal tears

The light escapes my smile

There is no likeness to be seen, it is so strange to me

Awaken vindication

The mirrors curse - it besets me

CHORUS

Endless, timeless, faceless terror

To the isle of deadly shores

Sightless, countless, ageless torture

To behold the sight of Medusa's eyes

Under a spell - I'm enchanted

The hand of fate is never late to ring the time

I'm forced to climb the walls

A voice bids last farewell

With no beginning or no end to be found by me

CHORUS

Endless, timeless, faceless terror

To the isle of deadly shores

Sightless, countless, ageless torture

To behold the sight of Medusa's eyes

SOLO

Instrumental (The Isle of Deadly Shores)

CHORUS

Endless, timeless, faceless terror

To the isle of deadly shores

Sightless, countless, ageless torture

To behold the sight of Medusa's eyes
